Three days Workshop on Prospects of Modern Beekeeping in Pakistan

at
Pir Mehr Ali Shah, Arid Agriculture University Rawalpindi Pakistan

Scope of the Workshop:
Participant will be trained to do beekeeping using modern techniques and equipments during the workshop. Following topics will be discussed and exercised in detail during the workshop:

- Seasonal Management of Honey Bees
- Floral calendar for High Honey Production
- Small and large scale queen rearing methods
- Medicinal use of bee products
- Pollination services of Honey Bees
- Wax processing for Quality Comb Sheets
- Pest and Disease management of Honey Bees
- How to address Drug residues issues in Honey
- High Quality honey packaging for marketing
- Visit of University apiary for practical exercise

Who Should Attend?
- Professional Beekeepers
- Persons interested to start Beekeeping
- Graduate/Postgraduate students
- Researchers of R&D organizations and Universities
- Research administrators

Venue: Conference Hall-- (0900 to 1500 Hours)
Faculty of Crop and Food Sciences
PMAS-AAUR
Date: April 07 to 09, 2015

Organizing Committee
Chief Organizer: Dr. Muhammad Asif Aziz
Co-Organizer: Dr. Imran Bodlah
Helping Staff: Mr. Saber Hussain, Mr. Ameer Badshah, Mr. Mir Dad

Registration Fee: PKR 500

Professor Dr. Safdar Ali
Dean Faculty of Crop and Food Sciences
Prof. Dr. Muhammad Naeem
Chairman Department of Entomology
PMAS-Arid Agriculture University Rawalpindi
Email: asifaziz@uaar.edu.pk, Ph: 051-9292137; 0322-6862246