

Understanding China

Fellowship Programme

The Asian Institute of Eco-civilization Research and Development, Islamabad in collaboration with PMAS-Arid Agriculture University, Rawalpindi is launching the Understanding China Fellowship Programme for the youth intending and aspiring to understand China and Rise of China. Experts on China from Pakistani and Chinese universities and think tanks will deliver lectures and conduct workshops to train the participants.

Objectives

- To equip the participants with the knowledge and information about Chinese success in different fields
- To acquaint them about the Chinese model of development and shared prosperity
- To provide them guidelines as to how they can suggest a way forward to Pakistani policy makers in line with Chinese way of thinking

Duration & Outcome

It is a two-month long duration programme to be divided into two parts. First part comprises lectures, presentations and discussions. In the second part, each participant will have to produce a 2000-word concept paper on his/her understanding of China.

Selection Criteria

- The youth having at least Bachelor's degrees or Master's degree in social sciences' disciplines will be preferably encouraged to apply.
- There will be no gender discrimination and equal opportunities will be given to everyone.
- After the initial scrutiny, selected candidates will be called for interviews in the first week of July for the final selection.

Certificates and Honorarium

At the conclusion of the programme, participants will be awarded Certificates along with a cheque of Rs 10,000 honorarium on their successful completion of the programme.
